

Top Ten Facilitator's Qualifications

1. Willing to take risks, approach new people and try new methods.
2. Interested in learning and developing one's own community awareness and skill.
3. Willing to see growth as a process, not just a one-time project.
4. Demonstrates cheerful determination and stamina in the face of challenging times.
5. Willing to learn with others, entertain new points of view.
6. Does not need to know all the answers.
7. Able to share information and delegate responsibility.
8. Can maintain a sense of humor and perspective.
9. Can communicate effectively with a variety of people.
10. Able to engage in effective problem solving.