

Learning Unit Rubric

EL1515
Fall 2011
Luther Seminary

Student's Name:

Mary Hess / Fall 2011

Final learning unit evaluation

Purpose and learning outcomes

The intended learning outcomes are clearly stated

The community for whom the unit is intended is clear

There are specific instructions for the teacher/facilitator

An annotated list of necessary materials/resources is provided

Multiple intelligences are engaged

Notes from past experience with the unit are offered

Theological content

The theological frame of the unit is clearly evident

Connections to a specific religious community are noted

Biblical materials, if present, are congruent with the theological frame

Production issues

All sources are appropriately cited

The unit is in a format that is freely accessible (pdf, mov, etc.)

The unit was published to Feautor

Notes: